

I think there is a lot of value to the national and regional broadcasting. I listen to at least 2 national radio stations and I think this is taking more freedoms away from the public. I don't think the LPFM should take priority over the current FM translator service. This is America and we should be free to broadcast as far away as we can. I think by taking the FM translator service away, you will be muzzling the national broadcasts.